

America, One Nation Under IV
By Greg Rangel

"Without morals a republic cannot subsist any length of time; they therefore who are decrying the Christian religion, whose morality is so sublime and pure (and) which insures to the good eternal happiness, are undermining the solid foundation of morals, the best security for the duration of free governments." - Charles Carroll, signer of the Declaration of Independence

Throughout the last few articles we have seen that America is on a decline in every way. This is due to the vast growing number of politicians that do not believe in God and are trying every which way they can to pass laws that will go against Christianity. An example of this is clearly seen through the current laws that are trying to be passed through the U.S. Senate. If passed, Pastors could be prosecuted under the hate crime bills for preaching against every type of immorality, including the biblical view of homosexuality. If S.909, a new bill that the Senate is considering is passed, then many Pastors will have their freedom of speech taken away.

I am so certain that when this nation was established, and when all the documents like the Constitution and Bill of Rights were being created, they perhaps never thought that Christians like them would one day be facing prosecution for believing in everything that the Bible says.

But as we have seen most recently through the various laws that are being passed, and as we also have seen in previous articles, there has been a vast movement to remove the Bible out of the public grasp including the schools and the government by those scoffers who "believe" that there is no God. Their actions are totally the opposite of the actions of our Founding Fathers.

We have seen that since the 1960's sexual immorality and every type of crime that can be committed by man began to increase by leaps and bounds. One only needs to look into the statistics rates per crime to see this fact to be true. Prior to the 1960's, crime was very real indeed, but not to the drastic rate that it is today. This is due to the result of people that fail to believe in God being elected into office. Since that time, more laws that support the immoral lifestyle of individuals have been passed, and at the same time these elected officials have been trying to pass laws that rule out God out of the public school system and the political scene.

Since it has become a crime to have the Ten Commandments displayed up in our public schools, kids no longer hear or read that it is wrong to kill another human being. We must not forget the Columbine shooting and the rest of the shootings that have occurred in our public schools the last few years. Based on all the above facts, to say that religion has nothing to do with politics is ludicrous. To say that America has never been a Christian nation is blatantly taking a position that is based on a willful ignorance and rejection on the historical facts. And to say that religion stops people from thinking and justifies crazies is an argument that is filled with opinions that have nothing to do with the truth.

If our government continues to pass laws that are in support of the immoral lifestyles of the abnormal, the soon judgment of God will pass upon this nation as it has passed upon the previous empires that have thought that God is not real and lived according to their own lifestyles. For those oppose the God of the Bible and His ways and share on Bill Maher's philosophy, I pray that there will be a day when they denounce their disbelief in the God who loves them and sent His One and only Son Jesus Christ who proved to be the Son of God with power by raising Himself from the dead on the third day and was seen by more than 500 people at once. Apart from that, I hope that they realize that the truth of God is found in the Bible in which they can also see that their sin can be forgiven and have the hope of heaven if they were to die today. Because unfortunately for those blatant blasphemers from the past, they now realize that they were WRONG in their thinking and in their logic. America must be one nation under God.
